Our country is in serious trouble. We don't have victories anymore. We used to have victories, but we don't have them. When was the last time anybody saw us beating, let's say, China in a trade deal?

They kill us. I beat China all the time. All the time. When did we beat Japan at anything? They send their cars over by the millions, and what do we do? When was the last time you saw a Chevrolet in Tokyo? It doesn't exist, folks. They beat us all the time.

When do we beat Mexico at the border? They're laughing at us, at our stupidity. And now they are beating us economically. They are not our friend, believe me. But they're killing us economically. The U.S. has become a dumping ground for everybody else's problems.

Thank you. It's true, and these are the best and the finest. When Mexico sends its people, they're not sending their best. They're not sending you. They're not sending you. They're sending people that have lots of problems, and they're bringing those problems with us. They're bringing drugs. They're bringing crime. They're rapists. And some, I assume, are good people.

I know I'm not an ordinary ten-year-old kid. I mean, sure, I do ordinary things. I eat ice cream. I ride my bike. I play ball. I have an Xbox. Stuff like that makes me ordinary. I guess. And I feel ordinary. Inside. But I know ordinary kids don't make other ordinary kids run away screaming in playgrounds. I know ordinary kids don't get stared at wherever they go.

If I found a magic lamp and I could have one wish, I would wish that I had a normal face that no one ever noticed at all. I would wish that I could walk down the street without people seeing me and then doing that look-away thing. Here's what I think: the only reason I'm not ordinary is that no one else sees me that way.

Tekst 6.1 Trayvon Martin Shooting Fast Facts

(CNN) Here's a look at the February 2012 shooting death of 17-year-old Trayvon Martin. Former neighborhood watch captain George Zimmerman was acquitted of the crime in July 2013.

Facts:

Trayvon Benjamin Martin, born February 5, 1995, was a 17-year-old African-American high school student who lived in Miami Gardens, Florida with his mother Sybrina Fulton. In February 2012, Martin was visiting his father Tracy Martin in Sanford, Florida after receiving a ten-day suspension from Krop Senior High School. The suspension stemmed from the discovery of drug residue in Martin's book bag.

George Michael Zimmerman, born October 5, 1983, was a part-time student at Seminole State College and a neighborhood watch captain at the Retreat at Twin Lakes gated community in Sanford at the time of the shooting. He is the son of Robert and Gladys Zimmerman.

Tekst 6.2 Fuck George Zimmerman and the Culture He Rode In On

This is one of the most disgusting things ever. It's not enough that Zimmerman killed Trayvon in cold blood, not enough that he walked away from it without being arrested immediately, not enough that it took thousands of people across the country marching and protesting to bring charges against him, not enough that he was acquitted and not enough that he remains free to accumulate more domestic violence charges. No, he has to also become a celebrity, built on his "career" of killing black children and abusing women.

Shame on the organizers and promoters. Shame on the thousands who e-mailed wanting to fight him and legitimize this. Shame on anyone who pays money to see it. Shame on all of us for allowing Trayvon's life and death to be turned into a spectacle.

When the protection you're enjoying fades and we all have to deal with the consequences of your actions, I just hope it's your family that suffers and not mine.

Tekst 7.2 About the Black Lives Matter Network

Black Lives Matter is a chapter-based national organization working for the validity of Black life. We are working to (re)build the Black liberation movement.

#BlackLivesMatter was created in 2012 after Trayvon Martin's murderer, George Zimmerman, was acquitted for his crime, and dead 17-year old Trayvon was posthumously placed on trial for his own murder. Rooted in the experiences of Black people in this country who actively resist our dehumanization, #BlackLivesMatter is a call to action and a response to the virulent anti-Black racism that permeates our society. Black Lives Matter is a unique contribution that goes beyond extrajudicial killings of Black people by police and vigilantes.

Tekst 8.1 Susan B. Anthony: On Women's right to vote

To them this government has no just powers derived from the consent of the governed. To them this government is not a democracy. It is not a republic. It is an odious aristocracy; a hateful oligarchy of sex; the most hateful aristocracy ever established on the face of the globe; an oligarchy of wealth, where the rich govern the poor. An oligarchy of learning, where the educated govern the ignorant, or even an oligarchy of race, where the Saxon rules the African, might be endured; but this oligarchy of sex, which makes father, brothers, husband, sons, the oligarchs over the mother and sisters, the wife and daughters, of every household - which ordains all men sovereigns, all women subjects, carries dissension, discord, and rebellion into every home of the nation.

The only question left to be settled now is: Are women persons? And I hardly believe any of our opponents will have the hardihood to say they are not. Being persons, then, women are citizens; and no state has a right to make any law, or to enforce any old law, that shall abridge their privileges or immunities.

Sigh, when I think about this place, I can't help but think it's another one of those places (which are particularly prevalent in Manhattan, let's be honest) that's really about the hype and the name and not really about the food. First of all, let me be clear: the food was fine, but it's NOT the real deal (ie what you get in Japan) in that Masa will just put a ton of expensive WESTERN ingredients into the meal to justify the price. Think caviar, foie gras, and a ton of shaved truffles. Yes, that stuff is great and I am fond of it as well, but THAT IS NOT AUTHENTIC JAPANESE. So for all of you out there who swear by this place, first of all, you're probably not Japanese, let alone Asian. And second, you probably have never been to Japan and have no idea what you're talking about. For $400 pp I rather go to Japan.

- Yelp, 1-stjernet restaurant-anmeldelse

Tekst 9.2

Masa Takayama, the illustrious sushi god from L.A., came to New York with a uniquely Japanese, if slightly insane proposition: that a meal of the highest quality is worth almost any price. It turns out he's right, but only under the most specific Rashomon-like conditions. Whatever you do, sit at the bar of this quirky, lavishly overpriced little restaurant (not at the dinky, dimly lit tables), preferably in front of Masa himself (not one of his acolytes). The ensuing spectacle, complete with risotto folded with uni and truffles, Kobe-beef sukiyaki, and slabs of foie gras cooked in a little shabu-shabu pot, is part nourishment, part entertainment, and part ancient performance art. It's not just a meal, it's an event—well worth the $450 cost of a single omakase dinner (before the sakes are factored in), and as different from the average dining experience as a TV rerun is from a first-rate Broadway show.

If there is anyone out there who still doubts that America is a place where all things are possible; who still wonders if the dream of our founders is alive in our time; who still questions the power of our democracy, tonight is your answer.

It's the answer told by lines that stretched around schools and churches in numbers this nation has never seen; by people who waited three hours and four hours, many for the very first time in their lives, because they believed that this time must be different; that their voice could be that difference.

It's the answer spoken by young and old, rich and poor, Democrat and Republican, black, white, Latino, Asian, Native American, gay, straight, disabled and not disabled – Americans who sent a message to the world that we have never been a collection of Red States and Blue States: we are, and always will be, the United States of America.

87. Operahuset

Operahuset i Sydney ligger lige ud til Stillehavet. Det blev designet af danskeren Jørn Utzon i perioden 1957-59 og tog 17 år at bygge. Det er på den ene side et af verdens førende eksempler på såvel et akustisk mesterværk som et fantastisk nyskabende design. På den anden side er det også et 1. classes eksempel på et bygningsværk der sprang alle rammer i det oprindelige budget og på papiret endte som et symbol på dårligt samarbejde og mangelfuld kommunikation mellem de implicerede parter, trods al sin skønhed.

90. Kærlighed

Kærlighed, er navn for tusinde følelser, der spænder fra en mere overfladisk og kortvarig sympati til den dybeste og varigste opfyldelse, et menneske kan opleve. Kærlighed kan give mennesker følelsen af, at de lever, og kærlighed kan også få mennesker til at gå i døden. Kærlighed kan knytte et menneske til et andet: Det gælder i forholdet mellem børn og forældre og i ægteskabelig og/eller erotisk kærlighed. Og kærlighed kan knytte et menneske til en usynlig forestilling som i kærlighed til Gud, fædrelandet, sandheden eller partiet. Kærlighed er på en gang den enkleste og den mest komplicerede af menneskelige indstillinger, som griber ind i hele det øvrige bevidsthedsliv.

I 1896 og 1898 byggede Henry Ford privat to biler, og efter et par mislykkede forsøg på at etablere en bilproduktion gennem Detroit Automobile Co. og Henry Ford Co. stiftede han i 1903 Ford Motor Co. Henry Fords ambition som bilproducent var at billiggøre bilen ved at forenkle konstruktion og produktion mest muligt. Dette kom tydeligst til udtryk, da han i 1913 tilpassede samlebåndsprincippet fra andre industriformer til bilproduktionen. Allerede fra 1906 producerede Henry Ford flere biler end nogen anden bilproducent i verden. I 1919 blev han enejer af virksomheden, og selvom han året før havde overladt den daglige drift til sønnen Edsel, vedblev han at have det afgørende ord.

Tilbage i Leiden arbejdede Rembrandt som selvstændig kunstner i nogle år sammen med en anden Lastman-elev, Jan Lievens. Sammen skabte de en ny genre, de såkaldte tronies, anonyme bryst- og halvfigursbilleder i fantasidragter. Atom, grundlæggende begreb i fysikken og kemien. Et atom udgør den absolut mindste del af et grundstof. Et atom kan eksistere selvstændigt, men er oftest bundet til andre atomer, der enten kan tilhøre det samme grundstof eller andre grundstoffer.

Alt stof, der omgiver os, er opbygget af atomer fra de omtrent et hundrede eksisterende grundstoffer. Atomerne er således grundlæggende for kemien. Men forståelsen af atomets struktur er intimt forbundet med den dramatiske udvikling af hoveddisciplinerne i den moderne fysik, elektrodynamikken, relativitetsteorien, statistisk fysik og kvanteteori. Herved er atomets egenskaber blevet beskrevet med en uhørt nøjagtighed og udgør nu det mest præcise, man kender i fysikken og dermed i naturvidenskaberne.
